

Proposed Agenda:
Corrective Action for Johnson Controls Contamination Site in Fowlerville, MI

Date: March 14, 2002

Time : 1PM Central Time

Place: USEPA Region 5 Headquarters room 812 B (312) 886-6010

Topic: Corrective Action at Johnson Controls Contamination Site

Trade Unionist & Environmentalist Participants:

Dan Smith, Conservation Chair UAW Local 602

Albert Ettinger, Sierra Club

Mike Garfield, Ecology Center

James Clift Michigan, Environmental Council

Bill Bryce, UAW International

Andrew Comai, UAW International

Steve Amter, Disposal Safety Inc

USEPA Participants:

George Hamper

Juan Thomas

EPA Contractor

EPA Ecologist/Icthyologist

Other?

TOPICS

1. Corrective Action Decision Process

- a. Where are we in the process
- b. What are the impediments to a fast, effective cleanup

2. Discuss major deficiencies in JCI analysis outlined in Disposal Safety Inc. Report

- a. Statistical errors in sediment data analysis
- b. Ground water plume mapping methodology
- c. Other problems JCI did not address
 - i. body contact, fish consumption
- d. JCI's unsupported conclusions
 - i. Potential ecological impact

by DSI

3. Comments on DSI Report and Summary Report from EPA Contactor

- a. Review contractor summary report findings
- b. Do the findings match concerns outlined in DSI report

4. Local Concerns

- a. Human Health Impact Survey
- b. Fish Sampling Protocol

- i. Comments from National Wildlife Federation re: current fish data and data gaps
- c. Natural Features Inventory for Red Cedar River
- d. Watershed cleanup goals

5. Immediate Needs

- a. Containment of Plume
 - i. discuss options
- b. Fish sampling

6. Establishment of a citizen review panel

- a. Discuss structure and time lines

Aclaptop/proposed agenda/030802

1. "Institutional controls"
potential PCB exposure